360CASHMERE

360CASHMERE, the California-based knitwear company, has announced the highly anticipated official opening of its new brick-and-mortar store, located in the exclusive Malibu Lumberyard. With interiors brought to life by luxury design agency 30 Collins, husband and wife duo Bruce and Leslie Gifford drew inspiration from the store's Malibu setting, incorporating natural wood and dark metal details showcase the brand's East-Coast-meets-West-Coast aesthetic. Known among the fashion set for blending effortless beach chic with sexy sophistication, the luxurious 360CASHMERE flagship store will also be the venue for upcoming in-store shopping and brand events, giving L.A. locals yet another reason to make their way down PCH.

Wildfox

Following the launch of its Sunset Plaza flagship store in September 2014, Los Angeles-based women's label Wildfox plans to open a second retail location at the Malibu Country Mart in late Spring 2015. This location will capture the essence of the brand's beach-obsessed customer. Designed with locally sourced vintage pieces and carefully curated modern accents, the new space will transform the unique Wildfox personality into a physical space that shoppers can experience and enjoy on an intimate level. The Malibu location will be brimming with the brand's iconic ultra-soft graphic tees, tanks, jumpers, dresses, bottoms, eyewear, denim, swimwear, as well as the full Kids range.

Zadig & Voltaire

High-end, high-street brand Zadig & Voltaire unveils SS15's new “it” bag, the Candide Deluxe. Available in yellow and black, the contrast of dark and light plays with opposites, a quality that Zadig & Voltaire has always appreciated. The result? A feminine and bold shape that you'll wear now and forever. Made of quilted leather, its hand-stitched, structured body is the epitome of casual and confident. Whether you choose to carry it by hand or on the shoulder, the Candide Deluxe bag magnifies the radiant beauty of a true woman — free to be herself while shining bright all over the city.
